

The Cowen Group's Law Firm eDiscovery Survey Projects Spending in 2015

December 11, 2014

New York City, New York

The Cowen Group recently completed its 2014 Law Firm eDiscovery Tools and Technology Survey with responses from over 120 law firms regarding their immediate and long term plans to maintain current or purchase new eDiscovery platforms, systems, and services. Survey respondents included eDiscovery Practice Group Partners and Attorneys, Litigation Support Managers and Directors, and CIO's from AM Law 200 and Mid-Law Firms. The most newsworthy results indicated:

1. Over the last 24 months, the number of firms currently engaged in executing managed services agreements has doubled!
2. There is an increasing demand in law firms for more robust and sophisticated eDiscovery tools and technology. 38% of the law firm market has plans to acquire new eDiscovery technology within the next 24 months.
